ABSTRACT

This report summarizes the activities of the South Carolina State Library. Sections include: (1) the library governance and mission statement; (2) a brief library history; (3) details about the organization and operations of the library, including a list of the responsibilities and personnel assigned to each of six departments, as well as charts of total expenditures; (4) data on library services to state government, to institutions requesting interlibrary loans, and to the visually and physically handicapped; (5) library acquisitions, divided by category; (6) library development activities, including consultant services and grant administration; (7) an update on the South Carolina Library Network; (8) highlights in public information services and programming; (9) volunteer activities; and (10) a list of recent state library publications. Appendix 1 is comprised of several library directories, listing the addresses of public library board chairpersons, public libraries, college and university libraries, and libraries in state institutions. Appendix 2 assembles tables which compare statistics from previous years with the 1994-1995 data. Data covers, among other things, library circulation, income, expenditures, and acquisitions. (BEW)

JAMES B. JOHNSON, JR.
DIRECTOR

TO: The Honorable David M. Beasley, Governor of South Carolina, to The Honorable Members of The General Assembly, and the citizens of South Carolina

An annual report from this agency is no longer required by the General Assembly. However, board members and staff of the State Library believe these reports serve a valuable purpose in the chronicle of events, evaluation of programs, and planning for the future. It is with pleasure that this summary of the 1994-1995 activities of the State Library is submitted.

Fiber optic cabling was extended to the State Library. The State Library was completely recabled and, for the first time, the State Library computer hardware is physically located in the State Library building.

"Agenda for Change", a program for a more responsive agency is now in its second year with positive results and cost savings realized. Work is progressing on a strategic plan to be presented in July 1996.

The State Library has maintained its commitment to continuing education with workshops designed primarily for public library personnel, as well as State Library staff.

Services for the blind and physically handicapped continue to be an important service and a large segment of the population takes advantage of this program.

Financial matters consumed considerable time and effort. Working closely with the Association of Public Library Administrators and with the support of the General Assembly, State Aid was increased from $1.05 to $1.25 per capita with a minimum grant of $15,000 per county. The governor's veto reduced the State Library's 1996 budget $333,795 and will likely create staff reductions and adjustments.

Federal funds, which have played a key role in statewide library development for forty years, are now uncertain at best with the end of the Library Services and Construction Act in FY 96.

The State Library has taken a leadership role in working with the Friends of South Carolina Libraries, a support group, and a fledgling State Library Foundation is being developed.

The State Library continues to provide quality service in an efficient professional manner. As you review this report, I hope you will give us your questions and suggestions about our work in Columbia and with local libraries throughout the state.

Respectfully submitted,

/Margaret J. Bundy

I. GOVERNANCE/MISSION STATEMENT

Statutory authority for the South Carolina State Library is provided by Title 60, Chapter 1 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina. Originally authorized in 1929 and known as the State Library Board, the public library extension agency was first funded in 1943. It was redesignated the South Carolina State Library with a broad range of responsibilities by Act 464 of 1969. The legislation was recodified and new functions were authorized by Act 178 of 1985.

The South Carolina State Library is an independent state agency governed by a board of seven members appointed by the Governor, with one member from each Congressional District and one from the state at large. Members serve five-year terms and may be reappointed. The Director, who is responsible for the operation of the agency, is appointed by and is responsible to the State Library Board.

The South Carolina State Library's mission is to improve library services throughout the state and to ensure all citizens access to libraries and information resources adequate to meet their needs. The State Library supports libraries in meeting the informational, educational, cultural, and recreational needs of the people of South Carolina.

To accomplish this mission the South Carolina State Library has identified five strategic issues to meet the needs of the people of South Carolina:

- Identify, organize, develop, maintain, and make accessible informational resources and services to meet the needs of the people of South Carolina.
- Provide statewide programs to support improved local library services.
- Serve as the advocate for libraries in South Carolina.
- Encourage cooperation among libraries of all types.
- Continuously improve State Library operations and services.

II. HISTORY

At the urging of citizens interested in quality county-wide library service, the General Assembly passed legislation in 1929 establishing the State Public Library Association and a State Library Board composed of five citizens. In the depths of the Great Depression, no funds were appropriated for the library extension agency, but grants from the South Carolina Library Association and the Rosenwald Foundation enabled the State Library Board to employ a field agent from 1929 to 1932 to assist communities interested in the development of public library service.

The first statewide library program was carried out under the Works Project Administration from 1935 to 1943. The WPA's major objective was to provide each county of the state some measure of area-wide public library service. The WPA library program helped establish library service in some areas and enhanced existing libraries' operations in others. The WPA program made possible the establishment of bookmobile service in twenty-three counties formerly without rural library service. At its demise in 1943, the WPA had been successful in creating public library service in some form in all counties.

The State Library Board received its first appropriation of $3,000 in 1943 and inherited the assets of the WPA. The State Library Board initiated its program with emphasis on State Aid to public libraries and a goal of statewide public library service. County or regional libraries were established in all forty-six counties. The pattern of unified library systems, each legally established and governed by a single library board, made possible a good level of service by eliminating expensive duplication and overhead and by sharing resources and personnel.

When the federal Library Services Act was passed in 1956, the State Library Board, by executive order of the Governor, was charged with administering and implementing within the state the library programs authorized in the Act. Through this Act, the agency's functions were expanded to include service to the blind and physically handicapped, development of library service in state institutions, and interlibrary cooperation.

In 1969, as the result of action by the General Assembly, the State Library Board was redesignated as the South Carolina State Library and assumed responsibility for public library development, library service for state institutions, service for the blind and physically handicapped, and library service to state government agencies. In 1985, an act was passed providing for the recodification of the State Library's legislation. The new legislation reauthorized all functions of the State Library and consolidated a variety of authorizations found in state and federal laws and regulations, executive orders and budget provisos.

III. ORGANIZATION/OPERATIONS

A. Organization

The director, who is responsible for the operation of the South Carolina State Library, is appointed by and is responsible to the Board of the State Library. The director is assisted by a deputy director. The work of the library is carried out by six departments. A brief description of each follows.

1. Administrative Services. Provides support services in the areas of budgeting, financial management, personnel, procurement, public relations, secretarial and clerical support, and facilities management.

2. Blind and Handicapped Services. Provides library service to the blind and physically handicapped in cooperation with the Library of Congress, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Reading materials are provided in special formats (recorded, large print, and braille). The service is free, as is the loan of equipment necessary to listen to the recorded materials.

3. Library Development. Provides consultant services to public and state institutional libraries to further the development and improvement of library services statewide. Administers state and federal grants-in-aid programs.

4. Reader Services. Provides research services to state government agencies. Provides statewide reference and interlibrary loan service to supplement local library resources. Coordinates the South Carolina State Documents Depository System.

5. Network Services. Operates the South Carolina Library Network through the maintenance of a computer-based library network and communications system which facilitates sharing of library resources and services.

6. Technical Services. Acquires, catalogs, classifies, and makes available all materials used in the library program. Maintains the library's database.

III. D. Highlights

The State Library entered a new automation phase this year by moving to a client-server environment with the introduction of a DEC Alpha 2100 processor. For the first time the State Library's computer hardware physically was located in the State Library building. To make maximum use of the capabilities of this technology, the State Library building was completely recabled. Fiber optic cabling was also extended to the State Library. Staff participated in discussions with the Office of Information Resources involved with the NTIA planning process to ensure that public libraries were considered as potential local access points for citizens.

FY95 was the second year the State Library operated under the changes made under a document issued in October 1993 titled "Agenda for Change". The agency has become more responsive to its clientele, and cost savings have been realized. Total quality management (TQM) activities increased with the creation of TQM teams to address challenges/opportunities. A formal TQM orientation program is being developed for presentation to staff next year.

Major efforts were devoted to the development of a strategic plan, along with an annual business plan for presentation to the State Library Board for adoption in July 1996. The Reader Services Department conducted a major study of the State Library's services to state government. At the end of the year, a marketing plan was developed to inform state employees of the services available to them from the State Library.

The State Library continued its commitment to continuing education with a number of workshops and other offerings designed primarily for public library personnel. Training will become a major role of the State Library as libraries and state agencies begin to utilize the Internet.

The State Library staff worked very closely with the Association of Public Library Administrators on its campaign to increase State Aid for County Libraries. As a result of this campaign, the General Assembly increased State Aid from $1.05 to $1.25 per capita with a minimum grant of $15,000 per county. This increase was offset when the State Library learned of Governor Beasley's veto of $333,795 from the State Library's budget. This action will challenge the State Library Board and staff throughout FY96 since the overall budget is not sufficient to absorb such a reduction. It appears the State Library Board will exempt State Aid from this reduction, meaning the 4.64% cut will translate into a 17.3% reduction in State Library operating funds.

In anticipation of possible staff reductions due to proposed budget action by the General Assembly, several positions remained vacant during the year. Staff continued to provide quality service in spite of these vacancies.

Federal funds have played a key role in statewide library development and State Library operations for forty years. Authorization of the Library Services and Construction Act ends in FY96. Congress is discussing the possibility of replacing this legislation; however, contingency plans are being made in case the federal library program is eliminated. If such happens, State Library programs would be devastated since eleven positions are 100% federally funded and a major portion of operating funds comes from federal sources.

The State Library has taken a leadership role in working with the Friends of South Carolina Libraries, a group which could provide support in a number of areas in the future. A fledgling State Library Foundation is also being developed. As public funding sources are reduced, organizations such as these will take on added importance.

IV. LIBRARY SERVICES

A. Information Services to State Government

The State Library provides library and information services for the General Assembly, state officers and agencies, and state government employees. To carry out its defined mission, the State Library provides a highly-skilled research staff and well-developed library collection to assist state government officials and employees in finding the information they need for their work.

Services to state government include:

- Staff of research librarians who conduct research and answer information requests for state employees to help them perform their jobs.
- Free loan of library materials, including books, journals, government publications, videotapes, and audiocassettes.
- Electronic database searches through CD-ROM products and computerized information vendors.
- Interlibrary loan service to locate and borrow publications that state employees need which are not contained in the State Library's collection.
- Preparation of bibliographies and lists of library materials on special topics of interest to state government.
- New Resources, a monthly publication sent to over 500 state employees, to alert them to recent publications available at the State Library.
- Special presentations and programs for state government agencies and employees to inform them of the services and resources of the library.
- Computerized access to the library's catalog, LION, and FEDCAT, a catalog of U.S. government publications dating from 1976 to the present.

Statistics on use of the State Library by state government officials and employees from July 1, 1994 to June 30, 1995:

- 16,756 research questions answered for state government employees.
- 51,274 library materials circulated to state government employees.
- 31,040 state government employees and SC citizens visited the library.
- 5,749 state government employees registered as borrowers.
- 977 titles borrowed on interlibrary loan for state government employees.
- 782 videos and films booked and checked out to state government employees for both training purposes and individual use.
- 299 database searches conducted using online commercial databases for state government employees.
- 324 questions answered for members of the SC General Assembly and legislative staff and 4,641 copies of informational materials distributed free of charge to the legislature.

B. Interlibrary Loan Service

The State Library provides reference and interlibrary loan service to supplement the local resources of South Carolina libraries. Since no single library can meet all of the diverse research needs of its patrons, the collections of the State Library have been developed as a source upon which local libraries can draw to make information and materials available to South Carolinians in their own communities. The State Library also lends materials upon request to other libraries throughout the country.

Statistics on use of the State Library's Interlibrary Loan Service from July 1, 1994 to June 30, 1995:

- 41,210 requests processed from libraries.
- 32,448 title requests for books and articles handled.
- 6,705 research requests answered for public and state institutional libraries.
- 2,057 alternative library locations determined for requested materials that were not available from the State Library's collection.
- 1,947 calls from SC public and state institutional libraries to the State Library's toll-free reference hotline answered.
- 40,163 titles circulated to libraries.
- 26,361 books and articles supplied to South Carolina public libraries for citizens in the state.
- 5,866 books and articles supplied to academic libraries in South Carolina for students and faculty.
- 1,330 book and articles supplied to state institutional libraries for staff, patients, and inmates.
- 1,221 books and articles supplied to special libraries in South Carolina for their employees.
- 4,314 books and articles supplied to selected school libraries in South Carolina for students and teachers.
- 1,071 books and articles supplied to other libraries outside South Carolina.

C. State Documents Depository System

The South Carolina State Library administers the State Documents Depository System which ensures local access to state government publications. Major points of the program are:

- State agencies/institutions supply 15 copies of publications to the State Library.
- The State Library catalogs and processes publications and retains 3 copies for its permanent collection. 1 copy is distributed to each of the 11 participating in-state depository libraries and 1 copy to the Library of Congress.

IV. C. (cont'd)

The eleven affiliate depository libraries which receive publications through this program include 9 university and 2 county libraries:

- Clemson University
- Coastal Carolina University
- College of Charleston
- Francis Marion University
- South Carolina State University
- Spartanburg County Library
- USC-Aiken
- USC-Beaufort
- Greenville County Library
- Winthrop University
- Lander University

State Documents activities in 1994/95 included:

- Selection of the 10 most notable state publications of 1994. Awards were made on Freedom of Information Day, March 16, 1995.

- South Carolina Information Exchange on May 12, 1995, with emphasis on state government information available in electronic format.

D. Library Services to the Blind and Physically Handicapped

The State Library's Department of the Blind and Physically Handicapped (DBPH), in cooperation with the Library of Congress, National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS), provides free reading materials to any legal resident of the state who is unable to read or use conventional print materials due to a visual or physical limitation. Qualifying conditions include, but are not limited to:

- blindness
- double vision
- cataracts
- stroke
- paralysis
- glaucoma
- learning disabilities
- palsy
- multiple sclerosis

Collection: Reading materials in special media--cassette, large print, braille, and disc--are available in all subject areas for all age groups. The National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped provides books and magazines in braille, recorded disc, and cassette formats; playback equipment and accessories; promotional materials; and support materials such as bibliographies, reference circulars, catalogs and fact sheets. The State Library provides staff, facilities, operating costs, and a supplemental collection of books in large print, and a descriptive video collection. Braille service is provided through contract services with the North Carolina State Library.

FY95 Total book stock by format

Hard discs	10,480
Flexible discs	37,321
Large print	12,536
Cassettes	221,392

In January 1995, a new service was initiated--descriptive videotape (DVS) lending. Descriptive videos are designed especially for blind or low vision persons. Without disturbing a movie's dialog, professional narrators describe action scenes. 42 DVS titles--the core collection--were donated by the S.C. Chapter of the American Council of the Blind. At the end of the FY95, 55 DVS titles made up the collection.

Patron Services: Materials--including playback equipment--are loaned and returned to DBPH by postage-free mail to all registered readers. Reader advisory service is also provided. An average of 99 new applications were processed per month in FY95. Total registered readers increased by 3% over FY94.

IV. D. (cont'd)

FY95 Total registered readers:

Adult readers	6,310
Juvenile readers	519
Institutional readers	2,284*
Total registered readers	9,113

*Based on the NLS formula, using a multiple of 6 to determine estimated institutional readership, 2,284 persons represented the readership in 414 institutions.

Circulation for all media including recorded magazines and DVS tapes was 272,813 in FY95

Patron Contact: Although budget constraints necessitated a reduction from eight to four pages, DBPH continues to publish a quarterly newsletter. Patrons still have access to a toll-free In-WATS direct line to the library and enjoy free matter mailing privileges for both receiving items from and returning items to the library. Walk-ins (patrons who chose to visit the library in person) receive personal service and are assisted by readers advisors.

FY95 In-WATS activity: 15,117 calls for 790 hours of staff time

FY95 Outgoing calls: 4,687 calls for 203 hours of staff time

FY95 Walk-in patrons: 1,084 (average per month=90)

In appreciation for talking book services, many patrons--as well as family members and friends--make donations to the library. In FY95 financial contributions (including memorial donations) totaled $6,900. Donations, by large print readers, of personal copies of large print titles resulted in the library receiving approximately $1,525 worth of large print titles.

V. LIBRARY MATERIALS

To meet the information needs of both state government and the citizens of South Carolina, the State Library maintains a collection of non-fiction publications on a wide range of topics, such as history, art, applied technology, political science, and the social sciences. The collection also includes audiovisual materials and state and federal documents. The acquisition and organization of library materials is handled by staff of the Technical Services Department. Specific titles which are requested by libraries and by state employees are monitored and often serve as recommendations for purchase. By acquiring, housing, and offering these information materials in one central location, the library attempts to eliminate the need for state agencies to maintain expensive, individual collections. The library's collection also serves to supplement the collections of local public and other libraries which often lack sufficient funds to purchase extensive research materials.

A. Statistical Summary. The book collection is chiefly a one-copy, non-fiction collection, except for South Carolina titles. It includes periodicals and newspapers in both paper and microfilm, and services such as Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) microfiche. Separate collections include federal and state documents and audiovisual materials. Principal additions during the year are as follows:

Item	Additions 1994-95	Total

All materials are cataloged according to national library cataloging standards. In order to better serve users, the staff acquires and processes additions to the collections efficiently. The Technical Services staff enters the data into the State Library's automated library system and maintains the database.

V. A. (cont'd)

As a member of Southeastern Library Network, a computerized network of libraries affiliated with the national network, OCLC, Inc., it is possible to add the State Library's holdings to the international network database, thereby enabling greater use through interlibrary loan.

B. Special Collections.

The library maintains a number of special collections which focus on specific topics to support the information needs of South Carolina's citizens. These include:

1. Audiovisual Collection - A collection of materials in videotape, audiocassette, 16mm film, or slide/tape which focus on specific topics to assist the library's customers. Audiovisual materials to support programs for children in public libraries and to provide information and training in the fields of early childhood education are maintained. Training videos to help state employees improve their job and management skills are purchased and circulated to a wide variety of state agencies. Audiovisual materials which train library staff and librarians are purchased to improve the skills of staff that work in libraries.

2. Blind and Physically Handicapped Collection - The collection of materials at the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped numbered 281,729. Volunteer narrators using the custom-designed recording booth and equipment have supplemented the new titles supplied by NLS in addition to the acquisition of volunteer recorded titles from other libraries.

3. ERIC (Educational Resources Information Center) - An extensive collection of research publications on educational topics in microfiche format. The library subscribes to the ERIC indexes in CD-ROM and paper to assist library users in locating research reports on topics relating to education and children.

4. Federal Military Specifications and Standards - A microfilm collection containing military and federal specifications and standards used by South Carolina business firms in preparing their bids to obtain federal government contracts. In FY 95, 374 military specifications and standards were shipped to businesses in South Carolina, representing over 8,000 pages of documents.

5. Government Publications. As a federal documents depository library since 1970, the State Library receives publications in print, microfiche and electronic formats. As the official state documents depository, the State Library has the world's largest collection of South Carolina state government publications.

6. Grants Research Collection - Includes directories and other guides to assist nonprofit organizations, government agencies, and citizens in locating grants. The State Library serves as an official regional collection of the Foundation Center and compiles and publishes the South Carolina Foundation Directory.

7. South Carolina Collection - Includes published materials dealing with South Carolina subjects. Multiple copies of South Carolina titles are usually purchased to ensure that one copy remains in the library for long-term, historical purposes.

8. South Carolina Fiction Cooperative - Fiction titles, identified as the "last copy" in a particular library's collection, are cataloged and maintained as part of the State Library's collection to ensure that citizens have access to older novels.

VI. LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT

The State Library provides services to assist with the development and improvement of public library services and state institutional library services throughout the state.

A. Consultant Services. State Library staff provides consultant assistance to library directors, boards of trustees, library staffs, library organizations, and state agencies and institutions. Staff serves as liaison between the State Library and thirty-nine county and regional library systems serving all forty-six counties and the thirty-three libraries maintained by seven state agencies. A combination of on-site visits, telephone contacts, and correspondence as well as workshops, small interest group meetings, and information exchanges are used in assisting libraries in identifying their needs and developing strategies to meet these needs.

During FY 95 State Library staff:

- made 2,287 consultations (telephone and personal) with local public library staff
- made 132 field trips to public and state institutional libraries;
- attended 32 public library board meetings;
- administered $3,671,028 in State Aid to County Libraries;
- supervised federal Library Services and Construction Act projects providing approximately $895,694.95 in grants-in-aid to public libraries and $51,192.69 to state institutional libraries;
- monitored public library budgets totalling almost $40 million in local funds;
- provided construction assistance for 23 library facilities in 13 counties;
- published South Carolina Public Libraries Annual Statistical Summary;
- certified 14 professional and pre-professional public librarians; and
- represented the State Library at local, state, and national conferences, conventions, workshops, professional association meetings, building dedications, and other functions.

B. Grant Administration

1. State Aid to County Libraries. The program of State Aid to county libraries has been funded continuously since 1943. For FY95, the General Assembly appropriated $1.05 per capita with a minimum of $15,000 per county for a total of $3,671,028 to the State Library for distribution to the county libraries. However, State support of county libraries as a percentage of total county library support has steadily declined for more than a decade making it harder for county libraries to meet the informational needs of their citizens. The regulations under which the funds are administered require that participating libraries be legally established, provide county-wide service, maintain levels of county funding, and meet certain standards of service. Qualifying libraries may use State Aid funds to supplement staff salaries, to purchase books and audio visual materials, to purchase or lease equipment and computer hardware and software, and to operate and maintain bookmobiles. State Aid's matching and maintenance of effort requirements have encouraged county governments to increase local support for libraries.

2. Federal Aid to South Carolina Libraries. The Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA) provides federal aid for the improvement and expansion of library services in three major areas:

   LSCA Title I -- public library services;
   LSCA Title II -- public library construction; and
   LSCA Title III -- interlibrary cooperation and resource sharing.

Detailed accounts of LSCA activities are contained in the State Library's Annual Program Library Services and Construction Act, 1994-95 and in The South Carolina Program for Library Development, 1994-1997.

a. LSCA Title I -- Public Library Services

This title supports improved service to public libraries, institutional libraries and special segments of the population with emphasis on reaching the unserved or inadequately served.

The Title I program for FY95 was significantly revised placing greater emphasis on expanding citizen access to information through staff development and training, acquisition of materials, use of technology, and development of services to special populations (Children and Young Adults, the Elderly, the Disadvantaged, the Illiterate, and the Institutionalized).

Title I Projects:

(1) Continuing Education (CE)

The State Library administers the career education project which provides continuing education opportunities through workshops and training grants for public and institutional library personnel and for public library trustees. The annual CE plan was developed in consultation with the state's public library directors, the State Library Staff, the University of South Carolina College of Library and Information Science, and the South Carolina Library Association. CE statistics for FY95:

19 State Library sponsored workshops
704 Participants
38 County and Regional Libraries sent one or more staff members to workshops
16 Training grants were awarded to 13 public libraries. Total $8,615.

(2) Services to Special Populations

Basic library service needs -- information, education, and recreation -- are the same for all groups, but the methods of delivering these services must be tailored to meet the needs of each group.

- Children and Young Adults
  Services to Children and Young Adults were a top priority in the FY95 plan because of the need in South Carolina to address children's school readiness and achievement in our effort to reach the National Education Goals. Grants were awarded mostly for projects focusing on reading readiness and projects aimed at improving children's access to information and ability to access information through the use of technology. In FY95, 15 grants were awarded to 15 libraries. Total: $131,060.

- The Elderly
  Senior Citizens now represent almost 29% of the total population and offer new challenges for the delivery of library services. Grants were awarded to libraries to develop and promote innovative library programs for the elderly. In FY95, 2 grants were awarded to 2 libraries. Total: $23,988.

- The Disadvantaged
  County and Regional Libraries were eligible to apply for grants to plan, develop, or expand programs of service for the disadvantaged. In FY 95, 1 grant awarded. Total $16,434.

- The Institutionalized
  Libraries in state-supported residential institutions continue to provide useful resources and programming to their clientele. The State Library assisted in the development and improvement of libraries for residents in state-supported institutions.

- Public Library Automation and Technology
  Public libraries are expanding access to library services through the use of technology. In FY95, 15 grants were awarded to 14 libraries. Total $118,255.

- Service to the Inadequately Served
  These grants are intended for the improvement of public library service to areas where library service is inadequate to meet the needs of the public. Grants were awarded for the improvement of information resources, the purchase of bookmobiles to improve delivery of library services to remote areas, for special programs serving adults as well as children, and for staffing for the delivery of library services. In FY95, 56 grants were awarded. Total $400,292.

b. LSCA Title II -- Public Library Construction
This title provides funds for construction projects which contribute to improved services in the participating county library systems. Relatively small federal construction grants have continued to serve as a strong incentive for local funding initiatives. During FY95, the following public libraries either received or were in the process of applying for LSCA Title II grants:

Chesterfield County Library, Cheraw Branch
Greenville County Library, Greer Branch
Horry County Library, Surfside Beach Branch
Pickens County Library, Central-Clemson Regional Branch Library

In FY95, Title II funds expended totalled $125,000.

c. LSCA Title III -- Interlibrary Cooperation and Resource Sharing
Programs funded under Title III support the activities of the South Carolina Library Network administered by the State Library. A variety of projects have resulted in improved communications, bibliographic access, interlibrary loan, consultant services, preservation of library materials, and study and planning. FY95 activities are detailed in the South Carolina Library Network Section (p. 24) of this report. In FY95, Title III funds expended totalled $263,487.

VII. SOUTH CAROLINA LIBRARY NETWORK

The South Carolina Library Network (SCLN), coordinated by the South Carolina State Library, supports the efforts of local libraries to meet the information needs of all South Carolinians through the sharing of library resources. The 172 present SCLN member libraries by type are:

Public libraries 54	Technical College libraries 16
Institutional libraries 4	School libraries 23
Academic libraries 37	Special libraries 38

Libraries participating in the South Carolina Library Network have access to: the LION (Library Information ON-line) automated catalog of the South Carolina State Library; an electronic mail component for the transmission of interlibrary loan requests; EBBS, an electronic bulletin board service reporting on current library activity in the state; the FEDCAT (Federal Document Catalog) information database which can be used to identify United States documents issued by the Government Printing Office since 1976; and the South Carolina On-line Library Directory, containing entries for more than 400 South Carolina libraries. For the purposes of interlibrary loan, South Carolina member libraries can use computers to dial into the State Library automated system to request both materials and information not available locally. Network Services conducted 33 SCLN training and technical support sessions during FY95.

The State Library expanded both automation and telecommunications support for the SCLN during the year. The addition of a DEC 2100 Alpha server in July 1994 resulted in a major upgrade of the capability of the library's automation system. The building was re-wired to accommodate the use of more powerful workstations. The library was connected to MetroNet, the state government telecommunications network being coordinated by the Budget and Control Board, to facilitate Internet access.

Network staff also participated in a variety of educational activities designed to support and improve reference service across the state. For public libraries serving the largest metropolitan areas in the state, the State Library organized a fifth annual Reference Exchange in August 1994. This meeting brought together reference librarians from Charleston, Greenville, Richland and Spartanburg County Libraries for a discussion of mutual concerns in the areas of public service and electronic reference. In May of 1995, a second South Carolina Information Exchange was held for 85 public and academic librarians to help them identify statewide sources of information in the areas of SC history, and of the health and vital statistics of South Carolinians. Two-day regional Reference Basics Workshops were presented in September and in April for 32 public service librarians. Two-day Better Communication = Better Reference Service Workshops were held in November and May for a total of 44 librarians.

To introduce on-line searching to ten libraries with no previous access to electronic databases, the State Library initiated the SC FirstSearch Project in 1994. To enhance local reference service, searches will be subsidized through August 1996.

In FY95, The State Library continued the statewide Preservation Education Project, reflecting its interest in the physical condition of the library resources of the state. The project consultant, whose services were obtained from The Charleston Museum, conducted 10 training sessions on the care and handling of library materials, and 3 two-day workshops on the care and repair of audio-visual materials.

State Library Network staff acted as liaison with other groups concerned with cooperative activities: the MetroNet/StateNet Security Users Group; the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET) Forum; South Carolina SOLINET Users Group; Palmetto Archives, Libraries, and Museums Council on Preservation; and the State Historical Records Advisory Board.

VIII. PUBLIC INFORMATION SERVICES

The State Library's public information service is responsible for a statewide program of publicity and public relations designed to publicize South Carolina libraries and to make the general public aware of library services. Activities include news releases, exhibits, special programs, and publications. Public information work is coordinated by a public information specialist with assistance from an internal public relations committee. The public information specialist position became vacant in February, 1995, and was not filled due to budget uncertainties. After that time, all activities were handled by the committee.

Highlights of the year include:
In observance of Freedom of Information Day, March 16, 1995, the State Library named the 10 most notable state government publications of 1994. News releases were mailed announcing the selection, and awards were presented to the issuing agency of each publication. The State Library developed an exhibit featuring these documents which was displayed in the State House lobby.

In conjunction with National Library Week and at the request of the State Library, Governor David M. Beasley proclaimed April 9-15, 1995, as Library Week in South Carolina. The State Library distributed copies of the proclamation to libraries throughout the state for public display.

The fifth South Carolina Read-In was held on May 3, 1995, and used the "Read Across South Carolina" theme. More than 1800 citizens, mostly school children, from across the state attended. The featured speaker was South Carolina's First Lady, Mary Wood Beasley. The event attracted wide media coverage.

The State Library was a major co-sponsor with the State Department of Education in the promotion of Children's Book Week (November 13-18, 1995) activities. This event draws attention to the importance of books and is celebrated by local schools and public libraries.

The State Library issues a bimonthly newsletter, News for South Carolina Libraries, which is distributed statewide. The newsletter reports on activities of interest to librarians and public library trustees. News about Library Services for the Blind and Physically Handicapped is published and distributed on a quarterly basis to users of that service.

In an ongoing effort to attract more patrons and to educate the general public about talking book services, DBPH makes presentations to interested groups, maintains a "targeted" exhibiting schedule, provides tours of the library, gives interviews as requested, and submits articles to interested publications.

In FY95, 37 BDPH promotional activities were conducted.

IX. VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Volunteers contributing time and services benefit the State Library and particularly the Department for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (DBPH). Members of boards, committees and advisory councils represent user groups and aid in the development of policies and services.

Individuals and groups were trained as receptionists, narrators, book inspectors, playback equipment repairmen, and clerical assistants. Receptionists answered the telephone, assisted visitors, prepared newsletters and overdue notices for mailing, and performed a variety of other clerical tasks.

Volunteers from the Retired Seniors Volunteer Program (RSVP) assisted with bulk mailings. Dedicated Telephone Pioneers repaired 1,100 cassette and record players. Narrators recorded all issues of "S.C. Wildlife" and "Sandlapper" magazines and the department's quarterly newsletter. They completed two books: HUNTING AND HOME IN THE SOUTHERN HEARTLAND: THE BEST OF ARCHIBALD RUTLEDGE and WHAT IS AMERICA AND WHAT DO WE WANT IT TO BE? Some also assisted with special recording projects to meet the needs of individual patrons.

Public relations efforts received a boost from volunteers who staffed exhibit booths at two events that reached thousands of adults age 55 and over. A special group of volunteers, students with developmental disabilities, labeled thousands of brochures and applications that were distributed throughout the year.

During FY95, 81 individuals contributed 2,546 hours of service as shown below:

State Library

	Profile of Members	Hours of Service
Library Board	6	72
LSCA Advisory Council	5	10
Total	11	82

Department for the Blind and Physically Handicapped

	Profile of Members	Hours of Service
Advisory Council	12	28
Telephone Pioneers	10	1,434
Other	48	1,002
Total	70	2,464

Based on formulas from the Governor's Office, the service value of DBPH volunteers is $30,700 with the total value of volunteers to the State Library being more than $31,766.
